

Graduate Course Grade	Requirements
A	All assignments are comprehensively completed and contain all components. Demonstrates consistent effort to integrate new information with prior knowledge and skill to achieve the course objectives and complete all course assignments. Impact on individual teaching and reflection about personal practices well presented and examples of changes or reasons for no change supported with data. Exemplary example of quality professional work.
B	All assignments are completed and contain all components. Demonstrates effort to integrate new information with prior knowledge and skill to achieve the course objectives and complete all course assignments. Impact on individual teaching and reflection about personal practices presented with examples of changes or reasons for no change supported with data. Good example of quality professional work.
C	The majority of the assignments are completed and contain all components. Demonstrates effort to integrate new information with prior knowledge and skill to achieve the course objectives and complete course assignments. Impact on individual teaching and reflection about personal practices presented but lacks data to support the impact statements. Minimal example of quality professional work.
D	Only some of the assignments are completed and/or may be missing important components. Minimal effort to integrate new information with prior knowledge and skill to achieve the course objectives and complete course assignments. Impact on individual teaching and reflection about personal practices missing and/or no supporting data is given. Poor example of quality professional work.
F	Majority of the assignments are missing and/or assignments are missing important components. Little effort to integrate new information with prior knowledge and skill to achieve the course objectives and complete course assignments. Impact on individual teaching and reflection about personal practices missing. No supporting data is given. Very poor example of professional work.
Licensure Renewal Course Grade	Requirements
Pass	All assignments are completed and contain all components. Demonstrates effort to integrate new information with prior knowledge and skill to achieve the course objectives and complete all course assignments. Impact on individual teaching and reflection about personal practices presented with examples of changes or reasons for no change supported with data. Good example of quality professional work.
Fail	Fails to meet requirements for a passing grade as outlined above.